

Drawings

As a hobby, I often draw. I have always been drawing since I was a kid, learning from my sister, who I believe to be the best artist I know personally and my role model in that way. I enjoy drawing comic book character, characters in TV shows and video games, and people.

Here is my latest drawing of two video game characters from the game Overwatch.

To the right is my drawing of comic book character, The Joker, that I am very proud of.

Here is one of my more realistic drawings of Jesse Eisenberg as Lex Luthor in the movie Batman vs. Superman.
